YNPN a new gathering place

The Inland Empire Young Nonprofit Professionals Network is the central place for information and resources for nonprofit professionals.

Inland Empire YNPN will serve future leaders by offering professional development programs, mentoring and leadership opportunities, and networking and social gatherings designed for professionals working in the nonprofit sector.

The mission of the program is to develop a sustainable community driven model that will enhance capacity building efforts of the Inland Empire nonprofit sector.

Membership is free and open to anyone. The target group is young (age 22-45) nonprofit professionals, but the network benefits professionals of any age, and experienced professionals are encouraged to act as mentors.
